

1 Do you think people should have many children? Why? Why not?

Yes, I do. It is good for the country when people have many children because later they become adults who work and pay taxes.

In my view, when it comes to family, having one child or many children is a personal decision. It is connected with social status, priorities, needs, character, time available or sensitivity.

No, I do not. The Earth is already overcrowded and we should not have more children.

2 Where do you most often go with your friends? Why?

I often go to the cinema / pub / pizzeria / gym / shopping centre with my friends.

We love watching good films together / enjoy chatting and listening to good music together / love Italian food, especially good pizza / try to keep fit and we motivate each other / adore shopping and trying on trendy clothes.

3 Would you like to have a lot of friends? Why? Why not?

Yes, I would. I think having a lot of friends is fantastic / awesome / wonderful. You can always talk to someone / mess around with someone. / You are never alone / bored / depressed.

No, I would not. It is not possible to have many real friends. / Friendship requires time and involvement. / It is difficult to have many friends because friendship needs time, attention and care.

4 How important is your family to you? Why?

My family is very important to me. They bring me up and take care of me / They encourage me to learn and develop / They help me with my problems / They always have time for me.

5 How important are your friends to you? Why?

Friends are as important to me as my family / the most important people for me because we trust each other / help each other / support each other / share our secrets / enjoy common hobbies and passions.

Friends are not very important to me because I prefer to spend time on my own / I have a big family so I don't need friends.

6 Do you often go out with your friends? Why? Why not?

Yes, I often go out with my friends. I feel relaxed when I am with them / I can have fun and mess around with them / I love spending time with them.

No, I don't often go out with my friends. I have to learn a lot so I don't have much free time / They all live far away from me.

7 Who is usually the most important person in the family? Why?

In my family my dad is the most important person. He takes care of our family / He works a lot and earns money so that we can live comfortably. / He is intelligent and wise and always makes good decisions.

In my family my mum is the most important person. She is responsible for everything. / She takes care of the house. / She cooks delicious meals. / She works professionally and earns well.

In my family both my mum and my dad are important. They both make important decisions / They both bring me up. / They both work and earn money.

8 Do you think it is good to be single? Why? Why not?

I don't think it is good to be single. Humans need company. / It is easier to deal with problems when you have a partner. / Life without a partner is boring. / We need someone to talk to / spend time with / have fun.

I think it is good to be single because you can focus only on you and your needs / you can concentrate on your career / you are independent and can do what you want.

9 Do you have a best friend? Tell me about him / her.

I have a best friend.

His / her name is...

He / she is really supportive / open / responsible / funny / loyal / trustworthy.

We can talk about everything / share many things / have the same passions / understand each other without words.

I do not have a best friend because it is hard to find one / people have let me down many times / I am not a very sociable person.

10 Would you like to have a big family in the future? Why? Why not?

Yes, I would like to have a big family in the future because my family now is big and we help and support each other / I love kids and I think I would be a good parent / Having a big family seems to be very interesting and good fun.

No, I would not like to have a big family. I want to focus on my career / A big family means many problems / Having a big family requires a lot of money.
